The following are the questions presented to the Shaykh with the corresponding minute marker from the audio:

1. When a sister has a cell phone and she marries, is it binding upon the new husband to take upon himself the payments associated with her cell phone i.e. monthly bills? [00:01:01]
2. I have some concerns/questions regarding the walī of my daughter who is 20 years old. She and I would like to know how we can change the walī if we believe he is not being fair and doing his job as the guardian. We have read ḥadīth and fatāwā that if a guardian rejects a suitor’s marriage proposal for no just reason the daughter might change her walī. We feel that her father rejects possible suitors for his own dislike. He would say things like he does not think they are religious enough or have good manners, without any investigation of the brother at all. We would like to know the steps/process to change the guardian. Does the guardian need to be informed of the change? Can the daughter just have her brother act on her behalf? Can someone from the masjid like an imām or even another sister’s husband’s brother become the guardian? We appreciate your help and advice in this matter. Jazākum Allāhu khayr. [00:08:10]

3. What is the advice regarding a wife who is jealous of her husband's relationship with the women of his family, thus she tries to separate him from them? And is there any advice for the husband in dealing with his wife in this state? [00:36:04]
4. What becomes of my children if I die and their Muslim father does not want them? I have non-Muslim relatives that could take them but I also have a husband who is not their father. Who should be given custody of my children? [01:33:04]
5. Can the word "masjid" be written on the slippers that belong to the masjid? [01:51:20]
