The following are the questions presented to the Shaykh with the corresponding minute marker from the audio:

1. In light of the terrorist attacks in France yesterday, how do you advise the Muslims in the West and in France and Europe especially? [00:01:34]
2. How do we respond to some Muslims who are saying that this is a conspiracy and was executed by the non-Muslims and non-Muslim government agencies like Mossad etc. with the goal of bringing more oppression and prejudice upon the Muslims in the West? [00:21:15]
3. How do you advise single Muslim women who do not have Muslim family to look after their affairs when they get divorced and they must work in order to support themselves and their children? [00:26:48]
4. Some women mix with men on social media sites believing this to be the best way to find a husband. There have been instances where young girls ran away from their families to be with men they met on the internet. These affairs always end disastrous. Is there any advice for the youth in general and the women specifically regarding intermingling on social media sites?

5. At what age should the young girl be prevented from entering the men's side of the masjid with her father? [00:41:13]
6. A woman married a man and was later guided to Salafiyyah by her son, after which she discovered that her husband is a ṣūfī. On advising him he becomes insulting and insults the scholars and speaks evil about Salafiyyah. She wants to be out of the marriage but he refuses to grant her a khula'. In Islām what can be done and what advice is there for that woman? [00:57:53]
7. Would it be wrong or disrespectful for a woman to ask her husband for dalīl when he tells her something regarding the religion? And is she held accountable if this angers him? [01:10:05]
8. Is there any advice for women who are in polygyny and do not get along with their co-wives? [01:16:36]
