The following are the questions presented to the Shaykh with the corresponding minute marker from the audio:

1. A sister married a man who has three kids: ages 3,5 and 7. Is it possible for one of her sisters to breastfeed one of the children? And if it is possible, which one should be breastfed so he may become a maḥram for her and the rest of her sisters? [00:01:16]
2. A woman was one month pregnant and decided to have an abortion because all of her previous children were 90% deformed. Is it permissible for her to do this, and if it is not, how do we advise the sister? [00:24:11]
3. Our Shaykh, Bārak Allāhu fīk, we are a group of sisters and we have opened a group in Viber - which is one of the social media outlets - so we can teach others what we learned from the religion of Allāh. One of the conditions is to remove any personal pictures from your profile before you join the group. Would that be considered from the important conditions for the group, keeping in mind that we have laymen or regular people who do not have much knowledge join the group, or shall we overlook it? We would love to benefit, Bārak Allāhu fīk. [00:37:17]

4. My non-Muslim brother was shot by the police and my family would like answers from our city and I have been speaking to a lawyer to find out why. Is this allowed? Also, my cousin is affiliated with a newspaper and has asked for the story. How should I properly handle this? [00:45:50]
