The following are the questions presented to the Shaykh with the corresponding minute marker from the audio:

1. A brother has two wives and the first of which is originally his cousin who he has five children from. The second wife had her first baby with him who is very young. The second wife is afraid her husband will take his first born from her to show to the rest of the family including his first wife. The [second] wife refused to let the first wife see the baby because she [the first wife] tried to commit suicide out of jealousy when he married her – she has now repented from that. She fears that her psychologic state is not stable. The [second] wife thinks it is better for his brothers and sisters and even his wife to come and ... on her child. What is your advice in regards to this situation?
2. What is the ruling on singing in Islām and is it permissible to listen to Islamic songs without music? [00:08:40]
3. Does a person have to pronounce the shahādah upon his tongue in order to enter into Islām? I have noticed individuals instructing the person who says the shahādah to raise his index finger. Is this from the Sunnah? [00:24:54]
