The following are the questions presented to the Shaykh with the corresponding minute marker from the audio:

1. During the course of a heated argument my wife asked for khula’ and I granted it to her? But the next day both, the husband and wife, realized we did not want to divorce. So does the khula’ count and how do we reconcile? Jazākum Allāhu khayran. [00:01:06]
2. Whenever I get sick, I’m afraid to spread my illness to the brothers in the masjid. So out of contracting the disease to all the brothers in the masjid, I stayed home, away from the ṣalāh in congregation. [00:07:24]
3. Is there any type of mortgage that is ḥalāl, which is borrowed by a bank? Some Muslim banks claim to do ḥalāl mortgages without ribā. However, it is known that changing the word, does not change its intent. So please, can you mention the things to avoid and the things to look for? [00:26:36]
4. A sister’s family watches ḥarām and listens to music and when she advises them, they call her extreme and do not listen. She makes du’ā for them, but what else can she do? [00:42:22]

5. May Allah bless you, yā Shaykh. Please let us know if it is appropriate for adult Muslim women to go on a mechanical bull for a fundraiser. A mechanical bull is a machine that replicates a sensation of riding above an animal, such as a rodeo bull or horse. When people go on these rides, the person will likely scream and the onlookers usually cheer the person by shouting and screaming. [00:51:36]
